Amcom is an award-winning Australian telecommunications and IT services company. Operating since 1998, Amcom specialises in meeting the growing needs of business and government for data, internet, voice and hosted services over its extensive network. Delivering superior customer service, faster connection times, product innovation and low connection costs, Amcom is the provider of choice to many leading organisations. We have recently acquired Perth based IT Services provider L7 Solutions, adding a range of services to our existing portfolio that include; Managed Services, Integrations, Advisory, Training and Recruitment.

As a result of this exciting growth, we are seeking a talented and strategic individual to manage all PR activities for Amcom, with a particular focus brand awareness and investor relations.

Driving our PR activities, you will be responsible for both internal and external communications, writing press releases and managing all public relations enquiries. Along with this you will be responsible for building and drawing upon your existing relationships with media contacts.

Who do you need to be?

This is an exciting time at Amcom and this position offers a unique opportunity to build on the Amcom brand and make your mark in the Telecommunications and IT Services industry. Consequently, you will need to be a passionate and innovative professional with the ability to autonomously drive the PR function.

To be successful in this role you will also have:

- A successful track record of PR achievements;
- Experience in writing press releases;
- A strong network of contacts both in Perth and nationally;
- Previous experience in investor relations processes; and
- Sound knowledge of financial markets and good financial literacy.

Importantly, you will also be a motivated and organised self-starter who thrives in a busy and challenging workplace, with the ability to work hard and reap the rewards of our fulfilling work environment.

To be considered for this exciting opportunity, please forward:

- Your current resume;
- A brief covering letter outlining your skills and experience in the areas listed above; and,
- An indication of your salary expectations.
